

Want to Make Your Own Radio Show or Podcast?

Jump headfirst into the world of media! Whether you dream of becoming a news anchor, radio host, or YouTube star, acquire the basic skills of broadcasting in a creative, fun, and exciting way. Through hands-on activities, learn how to use a microphone, speak clearly, tell great stories, conduct compelling interviews, edit, mix music, and present confidently behind the microphone. At the end of the class, show off your newfound skills by creating your very own show or podcast and sharing it online for your family and friends to enjoy.

Why Should You Join?

- Be Creative: Express your thoughts and experiences in a fun way.
- Build Confidence: Feel great about your new skills and talents.
- Stay Active: Keep busy with exciting activities and make new friends.
- Learn New Skills: Gain skills that will help you now and in the future!

Show Off What You've Made! At the end of the camp, you'll use your new skills to create your own radio show or podcast. Share it with your friends and family on RADIOFREEDETROIT.ORG!
